

ADVANTAGE SOLUTIONS INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

(As of October 28, 2020)

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Advantage Solutions Inc. (the “Company”) in its oversight of: (i) the integrity of the Company’s financial statements and financial reporting process; (ii) the Company’s accounting principles, accounting policies and financial and accounting controls; (iii) the Company’s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (iv) the qualifications, independence, and performance of the Company’s independent auditor; and (v) the design and implementation of the Company’s internal audit function, and the performance of the internal audit function once established.

The Committee’s responsibilities are limited to oversight. The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining accounting policies and procedures in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) and other applicable reporting and disclosure standards and for preparing the Company’s financial statements. The Company’s independent auditors are responsible for auditing and reviewing those financial statements. Each member of the Committee is entitled to rely on the integrity of those persons within the Company and from the professionals and experts from which the Committee receives information and, absent actual knowledge to the contrary, the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Committee by such persons, professionals or experts.

II. Composition

The Committee must consist of at least three directors, subject to any available exception. Each Committee member must satisfy the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) and the more rigorous independence rules for members of the Audit Committee issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), subject to any available exception. Each Committee member must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company’s balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement. In addition, at least one member of the Committee must be a financial expert as defined under SEC rules.

As provided in the Stockholders Agreement, dated September 7, 2020 (as amended, the “Stockholders Agreement”), among Conyers Park II Acquisition Corp., Karman Topco L.P., CVC ASM Holdco, L.P. (the “CVC Stockholder”), the entities identified on the signature pages thereto under the heading “LGP Stockholders” (collectively, the “LGP Stockholders”); BC Eagle Holdings, L.P., and Conyers Park II Sponsor LLC (the “Conyers Park Sponsor”), subject to applicable laws and stock exchange regulations, and subject to requisite independence requirements applicable to the Committee, each of the CVC Stockholder, the LGP Stockholders, and the Conyers Park Sponsor shall, severally, have the right to have one of their respective designees appointed to serve on the Committee for so long as such holder, has the right to designate at least one director for nomination to the Board pursuant to the terms of the Stockholders Agreement.

Committee members must be appointed to the Committee by the Board and may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Committee must meet at least once during each fiscal quarter. The Committee must meet separately, periodically, with management, with the independent auditor, with the Company personnel primarily responsible for the design and implementation of the internal audit function, and with the internal auditor (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function) once the internal audit function has been established.

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee may retain any independent counsel, experts or advisors that the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditor for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services, for payment of compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee and for payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, the Company's bylaws and applicable Nasdaq rules.

The Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of the duties and responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, associate or adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisers engaged by the Committee.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

Interaction with the Independent Auditor

1. Appointment and Oversight. The Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of any disagreements between Company management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and the independent auditor and each such other registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Committee. The Committee, or the Chair of the Committee, must pre-approve any audit and non-audit service provided to the Company by the independent auditor, unless the engagement is entered into pursuant to appropriate preapproval policies established by the Committee or if such service falls within available exceptions under SEC rules.

2. Annual Report on Independence. The Committee must ensure that the independent auditor prepares and delivers, at least annually, a written statement delineating all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company, must actively engage in a dialogue with the independent auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that, in the view of the Committee, may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent auditor, and, if the Committee determines that further inquiry is advisable, must take appropriate action in response to the independent auditor's report to satisfy itself of the auditor's independence.

Annual Financial Statements and Annual Audit

3. Audit Problems. The Committee must discuss with the independent auditor any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

4. Form 10-K Review. The Committee must review and discuss the annual audited financial statements with management and the independent auditor, including the Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations."

5. Audit Committee Report. The Committee must provide the Company with the report of the Committee with respect to the audited financial statements for inclusion in each of the Company's annual proxy statements.

Quarterly Financial Statements

6. Form 10-Q Review. The Committee must review and discuss the quarterly financial statements with management and the independent auditor, including the Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations."

Other Duties and Responsibilities

7. Review of Earnings Releases. The Committee must discuss the Company's earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies.

8. Risk Assessment and Risk Management. The Committee must discuss the Company's policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management.

9. Hiring of Independent Auditor Employees. The Committee must set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the Company's independent auditor.

10. Complaint Procedures. The Committee must establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and for the confidential and anonymous submission by Company associates of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Committee shall review on a quarterly basis a summary of such complaints and the associated investigations and findings.

11. Reports to the Board of Directors. The Committee must report regularly to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee.

12. Committee Self-Evaluation. The Committee must at least annually perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

13. Review of this Charter. The Committee must annually review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

14. Review of Related Person Transactions. The Committee must review all related person transactions as defined by Item 404 of Regulation S-K on an ongoing basis and all such transactions must be approved by the Committee.

15. Review and Enforcement of Code of Conduct and Ethics. The Committee must, at least annually, consider and discuss with management and the independent auditor the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics and the procedures in place to enforce the Code of Conduct and Ethics. The Committee must also consider and discuss and, as appropriate, grant requested waivers from the Code of Conduct and Ethics brought to the attention of the Committee, though the Committee may defer any decision with respect to any waiver to the Board. The Audit Committee may also oversee the determination of appropriate disciplinary action (if any) for violations of the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy. Such disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to, reprimand, termination with cause, and possible civil and criminal prosecution.

V. Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee has the authority to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.
